

FLOYD YOUTH GOAT SHOW and FLOYD MDGA-SANCTIONED MINIATURE DAIRY GOAT SHOW

EVENT: Floyd Livestock and Agriculture Show

DATE/TIME: Youth Show begins at 9:00am on September 14, 2019, immediately followed by the MDGA-sanctioned show

CHECK IN TIMES: 8:15-8:45am

LOCATION: Chantilly Farm, 2697 Franklin Pike, Floyd, VA 24091 (www.chantillyfarm.com)

SANCTION: MDGA, AOM Junior Does and Senior Does (does not include Nigerian Dwarves)

FEE: Youth Show: $5 per Exhibitor (unlimited entries for youth show) and MDGA Show: $25 Exhibitor's Fee covers the cost of all entries from one herd for the MDGA Show; checks should be made out to and mailed to: Stephanie Trout, 1278 Dobbins Hollow Rd., Riner, VA 24149

JUDGE: James Oller

SHOW COMMITTEE: Chair and Secretary: Stephanie Trout (Riner)

SHOW SECRETARY: Stephanie Trout (shepherdhillfarm@verizon.net), 1278 Dobbins Hollow Rd., Riner, VA 24149

SHOW VETERINARIAN/ANNOUNCER: Dr. Sharon Harris DVM, Bent Mtn., VA

RING STEWARD: TBD Cindy Deyerle, Bent Mtn., VA

HEALTH CERTIFICATE: Required for out-of-state animals, issued within 30 days of the show; no CVI's are required for VA goats, but no animals should be showing signs of illness;

HORNS: Horned goats are not acceptable for the dairy goat show.

PENS: There will be some pens available, formed from livestock gates. Please do not count on more than one pen. If there is enough room in trucks & trailers to hold the goats comfortably, these vehicles can be parked near the show ring. Exhibitors may want to set up their own portable pens or keep goats in carriers. Goats may also be tied out by the show ring. Once the show is over, goats will need to be removed from pens in order to make room for the sheep.

REGISTRATION/TATTOOS/MICROCHIPS: ALL animals entered in the sanctioned MDGA Show must be registered prior to entry deadline so registration numbers can be provided to the show secretary. All animals must have tattoos or microchips in place before the day of the show. Be sure to check that tattoos are readable and microchips are in place. Tattoos or microchips should match the information on the registration certificate. A microchip reader will be available on site.

YOUTH SHOW: The Youth Show is open to all youth age 19 or under on the day of the show. The Youth Show will include classes in Showmanship, Junior and Senior Does, and *Costume Contest. Goats may be of any breed or crossbreed and must be owned by the exhibitor's immediate family. A separate document describes all aspects of the Youth Show, attached. Any questions: Contact Stephanie Trout (shepherdhillfarm@verizon.net) for an information for the Youth Show. *Costume class in conjunction with the sheep class check schedule.

SHOW CLIPPING: Since the Floyd County location may have frosts in September, full body clipping is NOT recommended, so this will be a "fuzzy show"; exhibitors are encouraged to clip udders/escutcheons and any long hair on the topline, head, legs, feet, etc.

ENTRY FORM AND CLASS SCHEDULE for MDGA Show: Attached: For questions: Contact Stephanie Trout (shepherdhillfarm@verizon.net) for an information for the Youth Show.

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES: Entries should be postmarked on or before August 31, 2018. (No entries will be accepted if postmarked after August 31st.)

SUPPORTING THE SHOW:

- Class sponsors are needed and appreciated. To support the show, please consider sponsoring a class for $15. Sponsors are announced and will also receive a free business card ad in the show book. Please include a business card with your check made out to: Stephanie Trout (shepherdhillfarm@verizon.net) for an information for the Youth Show. (Exhibitor fee and sponsor fee may be combined in one check.)
- Some help may be needed to set up pens Thursday or Friday before the show or just before check-in on the day of the show.
- Some exhibitors may need some help showing, especially during the line-up for selection of Grand and Reserve Champions. Even if you've never shown before, your help is greatly appreciated.
- Dr. Harris may need some help with check-in for classes, recording places, or in handing out ribbons
